

A Blessing for Mamá

By Susan Barrett

Based on a true story

“The priesthood is restored, the truth made known to man, that God has spoken to the earth, His pow’r is here again” (Children’s Songbook, 89).

Primary was over, and 10-year-old Ruben was looking for the missionaries. They were going to walk home with him. Elder Sánchez and Elder Rojas had taught Ruben and his older brother, Diego, the missionary lessons and had baptized and confirmed them. Now Ruben thought of them as his best friends.

Ruben looked through the window of a closed classroom door. There they were! But what were they doing? Their hands were on the head of a man in the ward, and it looked like they were saying a prayer like they had when Ruben was confirmed.

When they came out of the room, he asked the missionaries, “What were you doing?”

“We were giving Brother Mendoza a priesthood blessing,” said Elder Sánchez. “It’s like a special prayer, and it can give comfort, help someone know how to solve a problem, or even heal someone who is sick.”

The next Sunday Ruben looked for the missionaries after church again. “Can you come to my house and give my mamá a blessing?” he asked. “Her back is hurting a lot.”

They all hurried to Ruben’s house. Elder Sánchez and Elder Rojas talked to Ruben’s mamá. She was a member of the Church, but she had not been to church for a long time.

“We understand you are not feeling well, Sister Garcia,” Elder Rojas said.

“My back has been hurting badly for several weeks,” she told them. “I have met with many doctors, but they haven’t been able to help me.”

“Ruben asked us to come and give you a priesthood blessing,” Elder Sánchez said. “Would you like us to do that?”

“Oh, yes, please,” Mamá said.

As the missionaries put their hands on her head and gave her a blessing, tears rolled down Mamá’s cheeks. When they were finished, Ruben hugged her. “I know the blessing will help you,” he told her.

Three days later the missionaries returned to see how Ruben’s mamá was feeling. “I am so happy to see you,” she told them. “The pain in my back started to go away after you gave me the blessing, and now it is completely gone!”

“Heavenly Father healed you, Sister Garcia,” Elder Sánchez said. “And He allowed us to help Him by using our priesthood authority to bless you.”

The next Sunday—and every Sunday after that—Mamá went to church with Ruben and Diego. She knew that the power of the priesthood was real, and so did Ruben. ■

WHAT IS THE PRIESTHOOD?

The priesthood is the authority to act in Heavenly Father’s name.

Boys in the Church can hold the Aaronic Priesthood when they are worthy and 12 years old. They can hold the Melchizedek Priesthood when they are worthy and 18.

The offices in the Aaronic Priesthood include deacon, teacher, and priest. The offices in the Melchizedek Priesthood include elder, high priest, patriarch, Seventy, and Apostle.

Some things Aaronic Priesthood holders can do:

- Prepare the sacrament (teachers and priests), bless it (priests), and pass it (all)
- Be home teachers (teachers and priests)
- Baptize (priests)
- Gather fast offerings (deacons, teachers, and priests)
- Ordain others in the Aaronic Priesthood (priests)

Some things Melchizedek Priesthood holders can do:

- Do everything Aaronic Priesthood holders do, plus:
- Confirm members of the Church after baptism
- Give priesthood blessings
- Direct Church meetings and extend callings
