Family Home Evening Ideas

This issue contains articles and activities that could be used for family home evening. The following are two examples.

"What We Believe," page 8: This article teaches, "As we sustain the prophet and apostles, we gain a testimony of them as servants of God." You can increase your testimony of prophets by reading or listening to general conference talks. As a family, consider reading one of President Monson's recent talks and choosing a specific piece of his counsel to live by. As you live what the prophet has asked, try to recognize how you are blessed.

"Come, Follow Me: Teaching the Basics at Home," page 28: President Spencer W. Kimball (1895–1985) taught,

"Our success, individually and as a Church, will largely be determined by how faithfully we focus on living the gospel at home." Consider studying a Come, Follow Me topic as a family for a month. You could study aspects of your chosen topic each week, using the scriptures or other study aids like Preach My Gospel, LDS.org, the Guide to the Scriptures, and The Life of Christ Bible Videos. At family home evening each week, you could share what you've learned and felt. Consider recording your thoughts and impressions in a study journal and sharing what you've learned with your friends via social media.
