How do we judge whether worldly philosophies about the family are true?

“The proclamation on the family has become our benchmark for judging the philosophies of the world, and I testify that the principles set forth within this statement are as true today as they were when they were given to us by a prophet of God nearly 20 years ago.”

Bonnie L. Oscarson, Young Women general president, “Defenders of the Family Proclamation,” Ensign or Liahona, May 2015, 14–15.
