

FUN STOP

Solving in Circles

What's the best part of going on vacation? Coming back home again and realizing how much you missed the place! OK, so maybe that's not always the best part. But when it comes to solving this puzzle, it is. Your goal is to end up "back home."

Starting at the first word, change the previous word by only one letter to reach the new word. At the end, you'll be only one letter away from the original word.
