▲ We've been making New Era readers giggle for 40 years. "Mormon Standard Time" was the first cartoon we ever printed. It ran in the very first issue of the New Era, published in January 1971, in a section called "Funnies." Two months later, the cartoon section's name was changed to "Mormonisms." And since January 2001 we've been going "The Extra Smile" just to make you grin. Go ahead and laugh a little.
