

Prophets & Revelation

Search these commandments

In the Doctrine and Covenants, often the word commandment = revelation.

The Lord called Section 1 the “preface” to the Doctrine and Covenants. “These commandments” are the revelations in that book. But we should also be studying all the words of modern revelation.

True and faithful

“Truth is knowledge of things as they are, and as they were, and as they are to come” (Doctrine and Covenants 93:24). Eternal truth is true for all of God’s children, no matter where or when they live.

“Spiritual truth cannot be ignored—especially divine commandments. Keeping divine commandments brings blessings, every time! Breaking divine commandments brings a loss of blessings, every time!”

President Russell M. Nelson, Apr. 2014 general conference.

What I the Lord have spoken

We believe:

- All that God has revealed.
- All that God does now reveal.
- All that God will yet reveal.

(See Articles of Faith 1:9.)

The voice of my servants

“Why are we so willing to follow the voice of our prophet? For those diligently seeking eternal life, the prophet’s voice brings spiritual safety in very turbulent times.”

Elder Neil L. Andersen, Apr. 2018 general conference.

“Search these commandments, for they are true and faithful, and the prophecies and promises which are in them shall all be fulfilled. “What I the Lord have spoken, I have spoken, and I excuse not myself; and though the heavens and the earth pass away, my word shall not pass away, but shall all be fulfilled, whether by mine own voice or by the voice of my servants, it is the same.”

Doctrine and Covenants 1:37–38

Now What?

- What are the Lord’s servants currently emphasizing in their teachings?
- What am I doing to receive and follow the Lord’s word through them?
- How could I better hear and follow the word of the Lord through His prophets?
