

OLD TESTAMENT GEOGRAPHY

See if you can match these places from the Old Testament with their pictures and descriptions.

1. DEAD SEA
2. SINAI
3. JERICHO
4. JERUSALEM
5. RED SEA
6. DAMASCUS
7. ASSYRIA
8. NINEVEH
9. EGYPT
10. JORDAN RIVER
11. VALLEY OF ELAH
12. MOUNT CARMEL
13. BABYLON
14. BETHLEHEM
15. SHUSHAN (OR SUSA)

 Find clues in the Bible Dictionary or the Bible Maps at the back of the LDS edition of the Bible or online at scriptures.lds.org*

ALL PHOTOGRAPHS BY ISTOCK/THINKSTOCK UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED

A.

Where Moses saw the burning bush and later received the law, including the Ten Commandments.

B.

Where David fought Goliath.

F.

Kingdom that was prominent in the Middle East for about 2,000 years; at different times, both a place of refuge and a place of bondage for God's people; Abraham went here; Joseph was sold into slavery here, became a ruler, and saved his family from famine; Jacob's descendants lived here, were enslaved, and then were delivered by Moses.

I.

Main city in an empire that dominated in the Middle East from about 607 to 538 B.C.; Israelites were taken here as captives after being conquered.

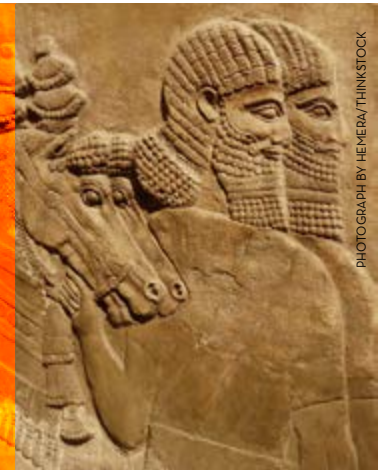

J.

Where Elijah held a contest with the priests of Baal.

L.

Empire that was dominant in the Middle East (850-607 B.C.); conquered and dispersed the northern kingdom of Israel (the 10 tribes).

PHOTOGRAPH BY HEYERA/THINKSTOCK

D.

Where Esther lived;
capital of the Persian Empire.

C.

City taken by David from the Jebusites; later the site of Solomon's temple.

E.

Its waters were divided so that Moses and the Israelites could cross it and escape their captivity.

G.

Its waters will be "healed" by waters flowing out of the temple at Jerusalem.

H.

Its waters were divided so that Joshua and the Israelites could cross it and enter the promised land after wandering in the wilderness.

K.

Where Joshua led an unconventional battle involving trumpets, shouting, and falling walls.

N.

Capital of Syria.

O.

Capital of the Assyrian empire; Jonah was sent to preach repentance here.

