

If Christ Should Speak to Me

Sincerely ♩ = 80-94

Words and music by Jenny W. Francis

1. If Christ should speak to me and bid me fol - low Him,
2. If I could feel His hands and touch His wound - ed side,
3. No wit - ness is more sure, sight or sound more real,
4. One day I'll hear His voice and see Him face to face.

As when He walked in Gal - i - lee and old Je - ru - sa - lem,
Would I be an - y sur - er then that it was He who died?
Than when the Ho - ly Ghost con - firms the truth I know and feel.
I'll touch the nail prints in His hands and feel His warm em - brace.

Would hear - ing His kind voice a - loud be an - y plain - er still
If I be - held the o - pen tomb and knelt with Him to pray,
For spir - it speaks to spir - it, and sweet as - sur - ance gives.
Un - til that bless - ed day ar - rives, when I be - fore Him bow,

Than gen - tle prompt - ings deep with - in that bid me do His will?
Could I more bold - ly tes - ti - fy that He lives on to - day?
With grate - ful heart I praise the Lord; I know my Sav - ior lives.
The Hol - ly Spir - it teach - es me to love Him here and now.
