

ETERNAL THINGS

*Sing parts separately, then combined.
Reverently*

Words and music by Ann Kapp Andersen

Piano introduction in B-flat major, 4/4 time. The right hand features a melody of eighth and quarter notes, while the left hand provides a simple accompaniment of quarter notes.

1. These are the things I dream of in sleep when the day is through.

2. Par - ent and child, we can all be a fam - 'ly e - ter - nal - ly, Piano accompaniment for the first two vocal lines, featuring a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand.

These are the things I hope for, hav - ing faith that they are true.

Liv - ing to - geth - er in a place of per - fect har - mo - ny,

Piano accompaniment for the last two vocal lines, including a key signature change to C major for the final phrase.

These are the things I pray for, when in faith I kneel to Thee; and There in the presence of Je - sus, with friends and fam - i - ly. What these are the things I'll gain if I live worth - i - ly.

 great - er bless - ings could I seek than these e - ter - nal things?

May my heart be up - on these e - ter - nal things. poco rit.
 Oh may my heart be ev - er on e - ter - nal things. poco rit.