The prophet said to plant a garden, So that's what we'll do. For plant the seeds to fill our needs, then plant a few to spare, And God has given rich brown soil, the rain and sunshine too. And show we love our neighbors with the harvest that we share. Oh, if we plant the seeds just right and tend them carefully, Be - won't you plant a garden, too, and share the many joys A fore we know, good things will grow to feed our family. We'll garden brings in health and love to happy girls and boys!
