Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken

Majestically = 80–100

1. Glorious things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God!
   He whose word cannot be broken
   Ye nations, rise, and worship the King, As with might to praise his name.

2. See! the streams of living waters, Springing from ceaselesstial love, Well supply thy sons and daughters,
   Zion! Zion, city of our God! Zion! Zion, city of our God!
   Zion! Zion, city of our God! Zion! Zion, city of our God!

3. Blest inhabitants of Zion, Purchased by the Savior's blood; Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
   Chose thee for his own abode. On the Rock of Ages founded, What can shake our sure repose?
   Make them kings and priests to God. While in love his Saints he raises, With himself to reign as King, All, as

A - ges found - ed, What can shake our sure repose? With sal-
Ta - tion ho - v'ring, See the cloud and fire appear For a
For the虏rings thy foes.
Glory and a covering, Showing that the Lord is near.

Priests, his solemn praises For thank-off'rings freely bring.

Music: Franz Joseph Haydn, 1732–1809

Psalm 87:3
Doctrine and Covenants 76:56–57, 66 (50–70)