This House We Dedicate to Thee

Prayerfully  \( \frac{}{b} \) = 80–96

1. This house we dedicate to thee, Our God, our fathers’ God.
2. Wilt thou thy servants here inspire When in thy name they speak?
3. Here may our sons and daughters come And find that peace which swells

Wilt thou accept and deign to bless The path our feet have trod?
And wilt thou bless each contrite soul Who here thy face doth seek?
From grateful hearts, when touched by thee, Where-in thy Spirit dwells!

Text: Henry W. Naisbitt, 1826–1908
Doctrine and Covenants 109:10–13, 78
Doctrine and Covenants 97:15–16