1. Up, awake, ye defenders of Zion! The foe's at the door of your homes; Let each heart be the heart of a lion, Unyielding and proud as he roams.

2. By His power is Zion surround-ed; Her warriors are noble and brave. And their faith on Jehovah is founded, Whose power is mighty to save. In each soldier a

3. Tho, assisted by legions in-ter-nal, The plundering foe men advance. With a host from the regions eternal. We'll scatter their troops at a glance. Soon the kingdom will trials of Missouri; For get not the courage of Nauvoo. brave heart is beating, Tho our numbers, compared, may be few.

be independent; In wonder the nations will view
When the enemy host is before you, Stand firm and be faithful and true. Stand firm and be faithful and true; When the enemy host is before you, Stand firm and be faithful and true.

We’ll not rest till our foes are retiring, And we’ll always be faithful and true, And we’ll always be faithful and true; We’ll not rest till our foes are retiring.

Our Zion in glory resplendent; Then let us be faithful and true, Then let us be faithful and true; Our Zion in glory resplendent.

faithful and true. Stand firm and be faithful and true, faithful and true. And we’ll always be faithful and true, faithful and true. Then let us be faithful and true.

faithful and true. Stand firm and be faithful and true, faithful and true. And we’ll always be faithful and true, faithful and true. Then let us be faithful and true.

faithful and true. Stand firm and be faithful and true, faithful and true. And we’ll always be faithful and true, faithful and true. Then let us be faithful and true.

host is before you, Stand firm and be faithful and true. host is before you, Stand firm and be faithful and true.

foes are retiring, And we’ll always be faithful and true, foes are retiring, And we’ll always be faithful and true.

glory resplendent; Then let us be faithful and true! glory resplendent; Then let us be faithful and true!

Text: Charles W. Penrose, 1832–1925, alt. Music: Attr. to Thomas E. Williams, d. 1854

Ephesians 6:10–18 2 Nephi 28:20–28