

Welcome, Welcome, Sabbath Morning

Brightly ♩ = 76-92

1. Wel - come, wel - come, Sab - bath morn - ing; Now we rest from ev - 'ry care.
 2. Hark! the Sab - bath bells are ring - ing; Hear the ech - oes all a - round.
 3. Here we bow in meek de - vo - tion; Here we sing God's ho - ly praise.
 4. Here we meet with friends and neigh - bors; Par - ents too are in the throng.

Wel - come, wel - come is thy dawn - ing, Ho - ly Sab - bath, day of prayer.
 List! the mer - ry child - ren sing - ing! What a pleas - ing, joy - ful sound!
 Here our hearts, with fond e - mo - tion, Seek to learn his ho - ly ways.
 We are earn - est in our la - bors. To God's king - dom we be - long.

Lov - ing teach - ers kind - ly greet us As we meet in Sun - day School,
 Ev - 'ry ten - der note en - treats us, Bids us come, nor long - er stay.
 From the books of rev - e - la - tion We are taught while yet in youth.
 Tri - als make our faith grow strong - er; Truth is no - bler than a crown.

Where they la - bor hard to teach us By the Sav - ior's gold - en rule.
 On our way the mu - sic greets us; Has - ten, has - ten, come a - way.
 Words of heav'n - ly in - spi - ra - tion Guide us in the path of truth.
 We will brave the tem - pest long - er Tho the world up - on us frown.

Wel - come, wel - come, Sab - bath morn - ing; Now we rest from ev - 'ry care.

Wel - come, wel - come is thy dawn - ing, Ho - ly Sab - bath, day of prayer.

Text: Robert B. Baird, 1855–1916
Music: Ebenezer Beesley, 1840–1906

Doctrine and Covenants 59:9–10
Mosiah 4:15