

Hear and Hearken

Words by Gerald N. Lund
Music by Lynn S. Lund

Gently ♩ = 76-88

mf

1. I read words up - on the pa - per, Race thru (2. If I) con - cen - trate and fo - cus, Train my (3. In the) scrip - tures there is pow - er If I pag - es one by one, And for - get these words are com - ing From the mind to real - ly seek, Then the let - ters take on mean - ing And the pay the need - ed price. First I read and then I pon - der, And ap - Fa - ther and his Son. So my eyes stray to the win - dow As my words be - gin to speak. What were once but plain black let - ters Take on ply them in my life. Oh the joy, the joy of know - ing What the thoughts lag far be - hind, And the pow - er of the scrip - tures Fails to life and lift me up, Heal my heart and soothe my spir - it, And re - Lord would have me do. For in do - ing comes the pow - er To meet reach my wan - d'ring mind. fill my emp - ty cup. I must hear and heark - en, life and see it through. f

Read, and then o - bey. I must pray and pon - der, Then walk with - in his way. It is not e - nough to read, To lay hold up - on the word. Not un - til I give full heed, Will he know I have heard.

2. If I
3. In the heard.

p