

He Is the Light of the World

Words and music by Stacie Ann Perkins

Steadily ♩ = 63-76

1. He walked the shores _____ of Gal - i - lee; _____ He said to all, _____ "Come, fol - low Christ _____ is ev - 'ry where. _____ I know he lives, _____ I know he mp

me." _____ He healed the blind, _____ He calmed the seas. _____ He taught of cares. _____ When days are dark, _____ When I'm a - lone, _____ I need His faith, _____ and love, and peace. _____ Al - though the world would love _____ to bring me home. _____ Some - times I won - der

mf

not be - lieve, _____ He marked the path to guide the way.
where to turn, _____ Some - times it's hard to choose what's right, *Brackets indicate introduction.

cresc.

The light of Christ is burn - ing bright, But Christ the Lord has shown to all bring - ing light to ev - 'ry the way, the truth, and the cresc.

day.
 light.

He is the light of the world, a guide un - to my

f path, a lamp un - to my eyes. He is the light of the world, shin - ing through the dark, bright - en - ing the skies.

1. 2.

2. The light of p rit.