

Simple Pleasures

Words and music by Linda E. Hart

Slowly

vs. 1: Women
vs. 2: Men
vs. 3: All

mp

1. Sun - rise, _____ soft and still, _____ gold - en streams of light Fall - ing from the
2. Sing - ing, _____ clear and sweet, a new - born ba - by's cry; Laugh - ter from a
3. Know - edge, the search for truth, a tes - ti - mo - ny's birth; An - swers whis - pered cloud - less sky to bring the end of night. — Glis - t'ning leaves, _____ bud - ding trees, a lit - tle child, a moth - er's lull - a - by. — Fall - ing leaves, a sum - mer breeze, as to my heart— how much a soul is worth. E - ter - nal life, an end to strife; the sing - ing bird in flight With all these won - ders I am blessed to have the gift of sight.

gen - tle as a tear; My life is full, my spir - it flies— how blessed I am to hear.
song my spir - it sings. As I pray I'm blessed to know the peace the gos - pel brings.

mf

S.A. Sim - ple pleas - ures, sim - ple joys, I'm giv - en all of these.

T.B.

no rit.

Thank - ful - ness then fills my heart and brings me to my knees.

1., 2.

3.

knees.

8va