

A LOVE UNFEIGNED

Words by Geoffery Dearmer

Music by Dan Carter

Calmly $\text{♩} = 54$ mf

1. And didst thou tra-vel light, dear Lord, was thine so smooth a road, that
 2. O won-der of the world with-stood! That night of prayer and doom was
 3. As in dark drops the pit-ting rain falls on a dus-ty street, so mf

thou up - on thy shoul - ders broad could hoist our hea - vy load? Too not the sun - set red as blood, the dawn pale as a tomb? In tears shall fall and fall a - gain to wash thy wound-ed feet. But frail each — oth - er's woes to bear with-out thy help are we; can ag - o - ny and blood - y sweat, in tears of love un - feigned, O thy quick — hands to heal are strong. O love thy chil - dren we, who we each oth - er's bur - dens share, if we not bur - den thee?

 un - des - pair - ing Lord, and yet, with man i - den - ti - fied.
 sing with joy the Pil-grim's song and walk dear Lord with thee.

