I Face The World

Words by Joan Oviatt

Music by Dan Carter

Marked ♩ = 104

1. A young man, I face the world to learn and give and grow _____ to
2. When I stand be - fore my friends, I will not let them down, let them grow. _____ I may stand proud of what I am, the down. I'll stand by eve-ry word I say and gos - pel makes me so. Proud of trust, of hon - es - ty in live as I be - lieve. Proud of who I know I am in all the things I do. When faced with ques-tions all a-round, the thought and word and deed, I'll let them know in all I do "you

1. gos - pel path is true.
can de-pend on

2. me." There may be times when I am down, times I'm wrong or slow, but these are for ex-pe - ri- ence, I'll learn from them and grow.

A young man, I face the world to give the best I can.

I will grasp the i - ron rod, and I will be a man! _____

*Let this phrase also serve as an introduction