

LOOK INSIDE

Words by Julie S. Anderson

Music by Dennis L. Crockett

With feeling ♩ = 92

1. Look in - side your - self and you will find. A love that reach - es out to all man - kind. Free and pure as morn - ing's gen - tle Warm and sweet and gold as au - tumn Grow - ing nev - er end - ing as a

3rd time to Coda

breeze. Oh let it flow oh let it go sun. Oh let it flow oh let it go stream. Oh let it flow oh let it grow.

oh
oh
oh

When Re -

you were a child — so will-ing to give to an - y who'd take your hand, you said as a child, for as long as you live, you'd mem-ber the teach-ing He gave un-to you, to love as you love your own. Place no man a-bove an - oth - er in love For take love to ev - 'ry land. no - one must be a - lone. As you grew your — eyes were o - pened to all the grief and the suf - f'ring of We are dif - f'rent. It's meant to be that way. Share your love with — ev - 'ry -

man. So now, what can be done to — make us as one, as was in — the Mas - ter's — plan? 2, 3. Look in - one, And your joy will a-bound. In the new world you've found you will see what your good works have done.

CODA
oh, let it go — oh, let it