

The Clarion Call

Words by Vaughn J. Featherstone

Music by Larry Bastian

With energy ♩ = 104-116

1. The clar - ion call is sound - ing from the tow - er on the hill; A
2. The e - vil one is rag - ing now and threat'n - ing all who stand. He
3. How glo - rious is the ar - my of the chil - dren of our God, Who host of youth are join - ing now with oth - ers com - ing still. They scat - ters dark - ness, hate, and fear a - cross our trou - bled land. He arm them - selves in righ - teous - ness and hold the i - ron rod. This come in bands of five and ten and hun - dreds more draw near; They strives to shack - le ev - ery youth and stay the clar - ion sound, But is the day, and come what may, we'll win a - gainst the foe. The know their Lord and Mas - ter's reign on earth will soon be here.

 no - ble youth who heed the Lord's com - mand can - not be bound.
 end draws near, the sig - nal's clear; in - to the fray we'll go.

Then ad-vance, O no - ble youth of God, and lift your stream-ing ban-ners high.

The flame of truth burns in your hearts; The vic - to - ry is nigh.