

I N T U N E

Joyfully mf

1. Ev'ry morning of our lives— when a
 2. Ev'ry eve-ning at day's end— when upglor-ious dawn ar-rives, full of pro-mise, We've goals to seek and heights to reach on our knees we bend in all meek-ness, We thank our God for paths we've trod,

While heav-en's light shines up-on us. Ev'ry While heav-en's light blessed our weak-ness. Man-y prob-lem in our way— can be con- quered as we pray, climb- ing moun- tains. We prob-lems that we've met— have been pon- dered, but as yet— go un- an- swered. By plan to win, then faith be-gins as we drink from heav-en's foun- tains.

 'faith we'll know which way to go, and trust in God, not in man's word,

Then why re-main in dark-ness, liv- ing each day on the edge. We can We're not a-lone in dark-ness. He will send the help we need. If we

The Lord is My Fortress trav-el far be-yond if we but make a sol- emn pledge — That bids us tune our hearts to feel his love the still, small voice will plead: — It bids us

"Seek for the high-est that is in you;— Don't be a - afraid to fol - low dreams. Seek for the high-est that is in you; Hold fast to Him— who re-

Unison deems. For in the strength of the Lord, in the strength of the Lord, You can ac - com-plish— all things."

rit.
We can ac - com - plish— all things.
rit.

