

You're Not Alone

Words and Music
by Michael McLean

Freely

Here's a lit - tle song to help you get a - mp

long. It will see you through when you're feel - ing blue.

And though it's not pro-found when you're feel-ing down, so down, Sing this lit-tle tune, and you'll feel bet-ter soon. You're not a - rit. ten.

lone, e-ven when you're feel-ing on your own, You are loved in ways that can't be shown;— your needs are known; You're not a - lone. And when you cry, — you're just

- let-ting go a heart-ache deep in-side, And to-mor-row there'll be sun-shine and sky — and love close by; You're not a - lone. And we know that it's not ea - sy, but we— know that it won't last, 'cause one that loves you more than me is send-ing bless-ings fast. You're not a - lone, — say it one more time, "I'm not alone," And e-ven when it's hard to find the words, our prayers are heard; We're not a-lone. You're not a-lone.