THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

Two thousand years ago, Jesus of Nazareth spoke to a woman beside a well in Samaria, saying, "Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life" (John 4:13–14).

Members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints throughout the world testify that they have found this living water and that it has given them peace of mind, new purpose and meaning in life, and a deepened desire to serve their fellowman.

In Lives of Service we meet several of these members—Julia Mavimbella of Soweto, Robert Stevenson of Atlanta, Dr. Emmanuel Kissi of Ghana, as well as others. They share their innermost feelings about the Church and how it has made it possible for them in today's world to live the Savior's timeless teaching: "Love one another; as I have loved you" (John 13:34).
